Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed.
 – Booker T. Washington

This comprehensive DVD compilation features an in-depth collection of documentaries and programs chronicling the contributions and accomplishments of the most prominent and influential African-Americans throughout the history of the United States. From the oppression and hardship during the time of the Civil War to civil rights movements that paved the way to this country's first African-American president, this 40 program set is the definitive retrospective of Black History in America.
