

MONUMENT MEN – THE ROAD TO RUSHMORE

Synopsis:

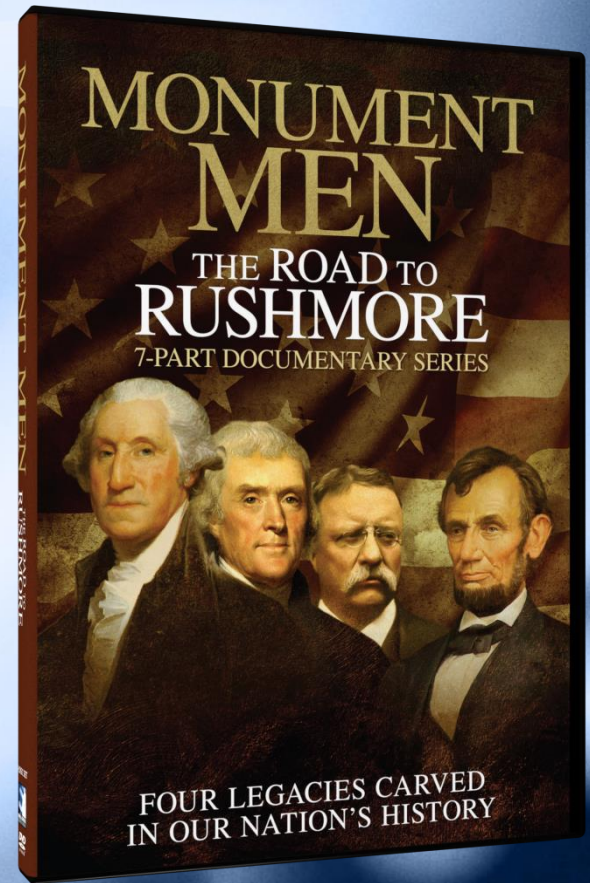

Tucked away in the Black Hills of South Dakota is America's tribute to Presidential greatness and individual freedom: Mount Rushmore. Carved in granite, it's a grand monument whose sculpting took 14 painstaking years and 400 highly-skilled workers. What it represents is an inspirational testament to American democracy, and a tribute to the four great men whose legacies are as monumental as their likenesses.
